

From Pastor Jon

This picture shows a person's hand on what is referred to as "the Theological Center of the Universe" for Christians. This spot is located in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre complex in Jerusalem and is midway between the site of Jesus' crucifixion on Good Friday, and the empty tomb of Easter morning. Midway between death and resurrection.

Midway between humanity's propensity towards violence versus God's redeeming love.

If you are in town and feeling good, I hope you will join your brothers and sisters in Christ for worship at 7 PM on Maundy Thursday and again at 7 PM on Good Friday. These two special liturgies invite us deeper into the Way of Jesus.

God's peace & hope,

Pastor Jon

Sermon and Children's Message Videos

We have been experiencing problems uploading the weekly sermons and children's messages to our Facebook page. We apologize for these problems and assure you we are working overtime to correct them. So, please be patient with us.

The good news is that the sermons are also available on the University Lutheran web site (uniluclemson.org). Just go there and select the Sermons tab to see not only this week's sermon but a number of previous ones.

We will be making videos of the Maundy Thursday and Good Friday sermons and will try to post them to the Facebook page. But, if the problems continue, they will also be available on the University Lutheran web site.

April Book Selection for A Novel Bunch, University Lutheran's Book Club

Our book selection is The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency by Alexander McCall Smith. We will meet in the Cry Room (near the sanctuary) on Thursday, April 18th at 12 noon for a lively discussion of this novel and for fun and fellowship. Come and join us!

This novel is the first in a series by this Scottish author and introduces us to Motswana Mma Precious Ramotswa who establishes the first detective agency in Botswana. She is joined by several other interestingly drawn characters to solve crime cases for her clients.

Let's Talk Race, Clemson

You are invited to attend a conversation with your neighbors on "the intersection of race and policing" in the United States. "Let's Talk Race, Clemson" is hosting this community event on Monday, April 29 at 7pm when we will discuss three primary questions: "What have been your experiences with the police? Under what circumstances would you call the police? What alternatives exist to calling the police?" Holy Trinity Episcopal Church will be our venue, 193 Old Greenville Highway, Clemson, in the meeting room across the breezeway from the sanctuary. Free parking is available in the front and back of the church. For more information on "Let's Talk Race, Clemson" see talkraceclemson.weebly.com (where you'll find an article to read on policing before you come on the 29th) or call Eunice Lehmacher at 864-643-8449 or Pastor Jon Heiliger at 843-304-5664, if you have any questions.

Wednesday Morning Bible Study – Gospel of John

At 10:00 AM on Wednesdays, we meet for a Bible study of the Gospel of John. We meet in the downstairs adult Sunday School room. The study is led by John Wagner, and is proving to be a fascinating look into the fourth gospel. We are learning and seeing things that are new to so many of us. I invite any who can come at that time and wish to learn about the message of Jesus through the fourth gospel to join us.

Recycling Guidelines

UniLu now has four green buckets from Clemson for curbside recycling. Clemson doesn't pick up from the curb from businesses like our church, but those of you who live in Clemson can take home one of the full green buckets (located next to the fridge in the upstairs kitchen) and place it on your curb. When it's been emptied please return the bucket to the church kitchen.

Although there are many things besides the items below that can be recycled, please place only these things in the green containers because these are what Clemson accepts:

Plastics #1-5 (empty, with lids removed)

All #1 Pet-soft drink containers (empty, lids removed)

All tin cans and aluminum cans

Brown, clear, and green glass (empty, lids removed)

Cereal boxes

Newspaper

Note the following items are NOT on the list: aluminum casserole pans, wrappers, paper like bulletins, corrugated cardboard. Please do NOT put these items in the green bins in the kitchen. (Our church office does have paper recycling. If you would like to recycle your bulletin or other paper, please leave it on the round table in the narthex after church or drop off other paper at the church office.)

Thanks for your help on using Clemson recycling's guidelines for the green bins in the kitchens. It makes it easier for volunteers who take the bins home to provide recycling to our community!

We're looking for at least four people to volunteer to take home the green recycling buckets about once a month. If you can help or have any questions please contact Eunice Lehmacher, eunicerkl@gmail.com.

The program will conclude with several uplifting pieces to send you on your way with a song in your heart!

PRAYER OF THE DAY for Upcoming Sunday

O God, you gave your only Son to suffer death on the cross for our redemption, and by his glorious resurrection you delivered us from the power of death. Make us die every day to sin, that we may live with him forever in the joy of the resurrection, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
