

This Sunday, June 16th, I'll be leaving for a week of Campfirmation at Lutherock. (<https://www.lutherock.org/>). I believe this will be my sixteenth or seventeenth year; I know for sure that this will be the fifteenth year that we will spend one morning in service at <https://www.childrenshopealliance.org/our-history/> formerly known as Grandfather Home for Children.

Our first year, when we were strangers, we were entrusted with stuffing envelopes. I had offered our services for landscaping etc., but when there was a dramatic pause at the other end of the line I said, "Let me guess, your work crews spent a good bit of time cleaning up after the last group who "helped" you." The sheepish response was, "...well...". But through our consistency in showing up now they can count on us to serve in any way they direct us. Stuffing envelopes? No problem. (although they haven't needed that help for years). Detailing vans? One of my colleagues loves that. Landscaping? Sure, we'd be glad to.

The other days of the week we have experiential learning around worship, prayer, giving, and sharing our story. Even better, the middle school youth get to spend time in the outdoors with peers and have the chance to make new friends, plus interact with college age counsellors who are living out their faith. A ministry like this can only be accomplished by partnering with other congregations and synods throughout the southeast. Although we don't have any Campfirmation campers from University Lutheran this year, I am looking forward to hopefully having several next summer!

God's peace & joy,
Pastor Jon

ELCA World Hunger

Your gift to ELCA World Hunger will help our church respond to the root causes of hunger and poverty in the United States and more than 60 countries around the world.

Have You Met Pastor Josh Kestner?

If not, a video of the introductory remarks he made at the April 25 Meet and Greet session held at the church are shown under the Sermon tab on the church website (uniluclemson.org) and on the church Facebook page.

Family Promise Orientation for New Volunteers

"Family Promise bridges the divide of homelessness that can separate neighbors. And in the face of homelessness, gives us the opportunity to be part of the solution, rather than part of the problem." - Daniel McLellan, OFM, St. Andrew Catholic Church, Clemson

Are you potentially interested in volunteering your time in one of many different ways for Family Promise?

Have you volunteered in the past but want to learn more?

Is God calling you to be part of the solution? If you answered yes to any of these, then this orientation is for you!

Jo Ann Brink, case manager for Family Promise of Pickens County, will lead an orientation session for new volunteers at UNILU

When: July 7, 9:30 - 10:50 AM

Where: Fellowship Hall

Come and learn what it's all about!

Letter of Thanks to my University Lutheran Community!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is wonderful to be a part of a church community which has provided such wonderful support and prayers during the past three and a half months of my recent illness, surgical procedures and setbacks. I have received so many prayers, lovely cards, delicious meals, and calls which helped to sustain me during this most challenging time. I have learned a great deal about the special grace and love our Lord shows his children in need and the various ways this grace and healing are manifested. I include special thanks to Pastor Jon for his wonderful visit and distribution of communion in our home before my ablation surgery. Thanks then to Everyone who took part in this ministry of healing! I consider it a blessing to be part of such a wonderful church community, and Jack and I offer our heartfelt gratitude.

Yours in Christian love,

Rosalyn Flanigan

UniLu Watering Volunteers Needed

It's that time of year when volunteers are needed to help water plants in the Fellowship Hall flower bed.

The main plants that need to be watered are the newly planted Star Zinnias, especially along the sidewalk area where plants get lots of sun and tend to dry out the fastest. The azaleas and the Walker

Low Catmint are OK and do not need to be watered unless we go more than 1 week without rain.

Please let everyone know via my email address if you're available to water on a certain date. Thanks!

Jean Askew; jaskew@nctv.com

Approximate dates volunteers are needed:

Sunday, June 16th - Ellen Reneke

Wednesday, June 19th - Suzanne Lemcke

Sunday, June 23rd - David Foster

Wednesday, June 26th - NEED VOLUNTEER

Sunday, June 30th - NEED VOLUNTEER

September, and October Book Selections For A Novel Bunch

A Novel Bunch is on summer break and will return to action come September. Considering joining us for some good reads and lively discussions. We meet on the third Thursdays of most months of the academic year at high noon in the Cry Room near the Sanctuary.

September book selection is The Frontiersmen by Allan W. Eckert which was published in 1967. The Frontiersmen is a historical narrative of the opening of Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and part of Minnesota during 1755 to 1836. Historical figures like Daniel Boone will come alive in this lengthy narrative. This book would make a good summer read. Our October book selection is

The Other Einstein by Marie Benedict published in 2016. The Other Einstein is about Milvea Maric, the brilliant Serbian physicist and first wife of Albert Einstein.

Recycling Guidelines

UniLu now has four green buckets from Clemson for curbside recycling. Clemson doesn't pick up from the curb from businesses like our church, but those of you who live in Clemson can take home one of the full green buckets (located next to the fridge in the upstairs kitchen) and place it on your curb. When it's been emptied, please return the bucket to the church kitchen.

Although there are many things besides the items below that can be recycled, please place only these things in the green containers because these are what Clemson accepts:

*Plastics #1-5 (empty, with lids removed)

*All #1 Pet-soft drink containers (empty, lids removed)

*All tin cans and aluminum cans

*Brown, clear, and green glass (empty, lids removed)

*Cereal boxes

*Newspaper

Note the following items are NOT on the list: aluminum casserole pans, wrappers, paper like bulletins, corrugated cardboard. Please do NOT put these items in the green bins in the kitchen.

(Our church office does have paper recycling. If you would like to recycle your bulletin or other paper, please leave it on the round table in the narthex after church or drop off other paper at the church office.)

Thanks for your help on using Clemson recycling's guidelines for the green bins in the kitchens. It makes it easier for volunteers who take the bins home to provide recycling to our community!

We're looking for at least four people to volunteer to take home the green recycling buckets about once a month.

Mission Statement

University Lutheran is a family of faith, called by the Holy Spirit to be one ministry serving both our community and university. The Spirit calls us to make known, by word and deed, the story of God's love in Jesus. Our worship together empowers us to grow as disciples as we receive, celebrate, and share God's gifts with all of God's creation and created ones.

PRAYER OF THE DAY for Upcoming Sunday

Almighty Creator and ever-living God: we worship your glory, eternal Three-in-One, and we praise your power, majestic One-in-Three. Keep us steadfast in this faith, defend us in all adversity, and bring us at last into your presence, where you live in endless joy and love, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
