

UNILU NEWS & EVENTS

September 4, 2019

From Pastor Jon

This coming Sunday, September 8, we will engage in community service projects here at the church (quilt tying, Hope Globe painting, serving a light lunch...) as well as out in the community. In fact, Lutheran congregations across the country will be doing so. If you enjoy yard work, I invite you to join me and others at the Littlejohn Community Center where we will be doing some light weeding, pruning, and spreading mulch (provided free from the City of Clemson). To read more about Littlejohn's mission and the difference they are making in the lives of our neighbors, check out their website:

<https://www.littlejohncommunitycenter.org/>

Feel free to come to worship dressed for working outside. If you have basic gardening tools please bring them (rake, bristle broom, flat shovel, pitchfork, pruning shears etc.) but if not, we'll have extra. Please bring a water bottle that can be refilled onsite.

God's peace & hope,
Pastor Jon

Quilt Dedication

One of the activities scheduled for God's Work, Our Hands on Sunday is the dedication of the 29 quilts produced during the past 12 months by the LWR quilters. These colorful quilts will be displayed in the sanctuary during both services for all to see and touch and bless, before they begin their journey to be a blessing to our sisters and brothers in faraway lands.

The first quilt of the new quilt year will be set up in the Fellowship Hall "fit to be tied." You are invited to stop by after service and tie a couple of knots.

Reading Buddies Needs Volunteers

Do you enjoy reading with children? If so, you are invited to join like-minded folks who volunteer time reading with elementary school children at Central Academy of the Arts. If you can volunteer as little as a half hour per month from 8:30-10:30 a.m., you are invited to join Reading Buddies. The only pre-requisite is attendance at a 45 minute training session and completion of a volunteer application (part of the training session).

If this sounds like fun, email Ellen Reneke, ereneke@nctv.com for more information.

UniLu Watering Volunteers

It's that time of year when volunteers are needed to help water plants in the Fellowship Hall flowerbed. Plants needing water the most are the Star Zinnias and the volunteer Melampodium, aka Butter Daisy, especially along the sidewalk where the plants get lots of sun and tend to dry out the fastest.

Because it's been fairly dry, the azaleas and the Walker Low Catmint may also need to be watered. Please let me know via email if you're available to water on a certain date. Thanks! Jean Askew.

jaskew@nctv.com

Approximate dates volunteers are needed:

Wednesday, September 4 - John Blackmon
Sunday, September 8 - John Blackmon
Wednesday, September 11 - Katie Healy
Sunday, September 15 - Carolyn Ringeisen
Wednesday, September 18 - Carolyn Ringeisen

Thanks to all who have been participating!

A Novel Bunch Reconvening In September!

On September 19th, the 3rd Thursday of the month, A Novel Bunch will reconvene after a summer break at high noon for fellowship and a lively discussion of The Frontiersmen by Allan W. Eckert. We will meet in the Cry Room near the Sanctuary. Consider joining us! All are welcome!

As a native Kentuckian, I learned more about early Kentucky history from this book than I did in all my schooling in this state. Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and part of Minnesota, as well as Kentucky, are featured in this lengthy and well written historical narrative of the opening and settlement of The Northwest Territory during 1755 to 1836. The book's prologue opens with the births of Simon Kenton, a frontiersman extraordinaire and Tecumseh, a Shawnee Indian extraordinaire. Our often turbulent and deadly relations with native Americans and theirs with us are often "cringe worthy," are not for the faint-of-heart, and are most sad. It was reality, however, and a must read for many of us!

Our October book selection is *The Other Einstein by Marie Benedict. This book is about Mivea Maria, the brilliant first wife of Albert Einstein.

Clemson Community Care Needs

Clemson Community Care has need of several food items that are in very short supply.

We have given out large amounts of food this summer and we need to restock our pantry.

We would greatly appreciate donations of cereal; crackers; pork and beans; flour; spaghetti sauce; pasta; cans of vegetables. Of course, we always need donations of toiletries; diapers; wipes; and laundry detergent.

Thank you for your continued support!

University Lutheran Church Mission Statement

University Lutheran is a family of faith, called by the Holy Spirit to be one ministry serving both our community and university. The Spirit calls us to make known, by word and deed, the story of God's love in Jesus. Our worship together empowers us to grow as disciples as we receive, celebrate, and share God's gifts with all of God's creation and created ones.
