

UNILU NEWS & EVENTS

November 13, 2019

From Pastor Jon

Thanks to all the many hands who keep the kitchen (and the whole property) looking welcoming to our neighbors. Likewise, thanks to the many groups who utilize God's facilities here at 111 Sloan Street (Foothills Chorale, Narcotics Anonymous, Clemson University Habitat for Humanity Leadership, Clemson Area Pledge to End Racism...and the many Lutheran Campus Ministry and University Lutheran ministries who leave the facilities as they have found them, and sometimes even a little better. Yes, our custodian Melissa does a wonderful job, but without the help of everyone there's no way the property could speak a word of hospitality to our guests the way it does.

So, thanks to the many unheralded souls who take out the trash, take home the recycles, put away dishes, wipe down tables and countertops and on and on; all to help us be a place of welcome for all.

God's peace & hope,
Pastor Jon

Sing Noel!

Have you ever wished you could sing with the choir on Christmas Eve, but felt you couldn't make the commitment? Then this plan is for you and will only take one hour of your time!

Here's how the "Christmas Choir" works. Come for 20-minute practice sessions on three consecutive Wednesday nights; December 4, 11 and 18. Practice begins five minutes after the conclusion of Wednesday Advent services. (Approximately 7:40 - 8:00 pm) That's it! Then sing with the choir on Christmas Eve for services. The choir is already practicing and is ready to welcome you! Please prayerfully consider this opportunity to be doubly blessed at Christmas! Let Judi know if you can join us!

Human Trafficking

You will be seeing tear-off flyers placed in our restrooms in the near future with information and phone numbers for victims to call for help. This is one small step we can take in fighting Human Trafficking.

From the Pickens County Advocacy Center (PCAC) Website we learn:

- * Human trafficking in South Carolina is real and rampant.
- * It is happening in our own community of Pickens County.

* Victims of human trafficking are subjected to force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of commercial sex, debt bondage, or forced labor.

*Victims can be young children, teenagers, men and women and crosses all socio-economic lines.

*Atlanta is a hub for human trafficking and more activity is occurring in the SC Upstate as traffickers are working on making Greenville another hub.

Sunday School Service Project

Our K – 5th grade Sunday School class has been studying Luke 17: 11-19, Jesus heals 10 lepers. We have learned about leprosy and how many children today are still fighting this disease. According to American Leprosy, the average cost to treat one child with leprosy is $348. As a service project, our class will be collecting coins to fight leprosy. Our goal is to collect enough coins by Thanksgiving to help one child. We will be placing a Piggy Bank in the Narthex beginning November 3rd and will be collecting coins through November 24. We appreciate your help with our service project. For more information about leprosy, please visit www.leprosy.org.

University Lutheran Church Mission Statement

University Lutheran is a family of faith, called by the Holy Spirit to be one ministry serving both our community and university. The Spirit calls us to make known, by word and deed, the story of God's love in Jesus. Our worship together empowers us to grow as disciples as we receive, celebrate, and share God's gifts with all of God's creation and created ones.
