UNILU NEWS & EVENTS

February 5, 2020

From Pastor Jon

This time of year we are treated to some spectacular sunsets (and rumor has it, sunrises too!) Daily reminders of the beauty of God's creating for all to enjoy. I am writing this in a surgery waiting area, not knowing what today will hold for those we love and care about but trusting God is with us, every step of the way. Thank you for your acts of love and kindness to your siblings in Christ at UniLu through your cards, calls, meals & visits.

God's peace and hope,

Pastor Jon

Church Library

“Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom and with gratitude in your hearts.” Colossians 3:16

If you walk into the fellowship hall, you may notice some changes to our Church Library. All the books currently housed in the “church library” foyer have been organized and inventoried. A master list has been placed in the library for your viewing.

In the library, you will find a wide range of topics: Bibles, commentaries and other biblical resources, devotional and prayer books, resources for parents, students, church and Lutheran histories, biographies, church life, fiction, and a host of books for various aspects of personal spiritual development.

If you see something you would like, the library is open anytime. There is no borrowing time limit, so keep books as long as they are being useful for you.

We just ask that you follow the check out instructions which are posted in the library.

If you do not see what you were hoping for, we would like to know about it! Please send any suggestions for subjects or specific titles that are of interest to you to Molly Parkhill, parkhill.molly@gmail.com or talk to any Education Committee member, Pastor Jon or Pastor Josh.

Community Ministries – Tell Your Story!

University Lutheran participates in and supports many community ministries as a congregation, as small groups, or as individuals. We would like to create a booklet that identifies those ministries, their purpose, contact information, members who are involved with those ministries, and any stories you would like to share about them.

Others may be interested in participating, and it is a lot easier to take that first step with someone.

Please contact Cheryl Smith (cheryli@clemsun.edu).

UNILU HISTORY

There will be a small display and discussion.

A Novel Bunch - All are Welcome to Join Us!

On Thursday, February 20th, we will meet beginning at 12 noon in the Fellowship Hall for a lively discussion of God's Scorekeeper by our very own Frank G. Honeycutt.

This 169-paged book is comprised of 16 short stories, some of which deal with pastors who fall prey to the "seven deadly sins."

English Professor Nancy Tuten of Columbia College comments on these short stories: ...Frank Honeycutt explores the interior lives not only of his misfit pastor protagonists, but also of anyone trying to negotiate a faithful life. He reminds us that demons of one kind or another haunt everyone: the overzealous and the cynic, the self-righteous and the guilt-ridden, the unstable and the smugly intellectual - all deeply flawed, all in need of grace.

- March 19th book selection: One Foot In Eden Marsh by Ron Rash

Operation In As Much

Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 28th.

Plan to come and help!

There will be both indoor and outdoor projects.

Stay tuned for more details in the future!

Thank you!

The Youth would like to thank the congregation for all of their support for the Souper Bowl of Caring event on Sunday! Over $600 was raised to help the youth travel to the National gathering in 2121. For our local community, 300 pounds of food and $84 was collected for Clemson Community Care. The Youth also made a donation of $84 to the LMM Water Missions.

Thank you again for your generous support for our youth and our community outreach projects!

University Lutheran Church Mission Statement

University Lutheran is a family of faith, called by the Holy Spirit to be one ministry serving both our community and university. The Spirit calls us to make known, by word and deed, the story of God's love in Jesus. Our worship together empowers us to grow as disciples as we receive, celebrate, and share God's gifts with all of God's creation and created ones.
