

UNILU NEWS & EVENTS

February 12, 2020

From Pastor Jon

Thanks to Pete Runge for creating our latest bulletin board, and to Sharon for helping him install it in the narthex. Since most of our first time guests rarely make it over to the Fellowship Hall, we are experimenting with ways we can use our “prime Sunday morning real estate” to share UniLu’s story of our partnerships with local, statewide, national, and international ministries through pictures, letters, and testimonies.

Ben Edge does a fantastic job with displaying photos on the monitor each week that captures our sense of fellowship; we’d like to do something comparable to capture UniLu’s sense of service. After all, the ministries we support are part of our response to Jesus’ two greatest commands: “Love God. Love neighbor.” So, please do me a favor. When you are out serving in the community, please try to capture some photos that we can then share with others. You can email them to me at pastorjon12@gmail.com or share prints, if you’d prefer.

God's peace and hope,

Pastor Jon

UNILU HISTORY

There will be a small display and discussion.

A Novel Bunch - All are Welcome to Join Us!

On Thursday, February 20th, we will meet beginning at 12 noon in the Fellowship Hall for a lively discussion of God's Scorekeeper by our very own Frank G. Honeycutt.

This 169-paged book is comprised of 16 short stories, some of which deal with pastors who fall prey to the "seven deadly sins."

English Professor Nancy Tuten of Columbia College comments on these short stories: ...Frank Honeycutt explores the interior lives not only of his misfit pastor protagonists, but also of anyone trying to negotiate a faithful life. He reminds us that demons of one kind or another haunt everyone: the overzealous and the cynic, the self-righteous and the guilt-ridden, the unstable and the smugly intellectual - all deeply flawed, all in need of grace.

- March 19th book selection: One Foot In Eden Marsh by Ron Rash

University Lutheran Church Mission Statement

University Lutheran is a family of faith, called by the Holy Spirit to be one ministry serving both our community and university. The Spirit calls us to make known, by word and deed, the story of God's love in Jesus. Our worship together empowers us to grow as disciples as we receive, celebrate, and share God's gifts with all of God's creation and created ones.
