

UNILU NEWS & EVENTS

November 25, 2020

FROM PASTOR JON

The season of Advent begins this Sunday, November 29. Advent is a season of waiting, of anticipation, of preparing. Sounds a whole lot like much of 2020!

But this waiting is different. This anticipation will give birth to hope. This preparation recalls our daily call to return to our baptism; to consciously focus on God our creator, redeemer and sustainer. The alpha and omega, the beginning and the end.

I invite you to join in our special Wednesday night 7 PM Advent services on December 2, 9, 16 and 23. (These will be on Facebook live, then available for future viewing on UniLu's Facebook Page or UniLu's YouTube channel.) We will light the Advent wreath as the choir sings "Light One Candle to Watch for Messiah". Pastor Josh or I will offer a short meditation and we will join in singing (or listening!) to Holden Evening Prayer, a beautiful, reflective worship to close the day.

The new church calendar year begins this Sunday bringing with it new hopes for the coming year.

Please continue to be diligent in wearing your masks, in physically distancing whenever feasible, enjoying some outdoor fresh air as much as possible, and keeping those hands washed! Please be safe with your Thanksgiving plans so that we can all be reunited in the coming year!

God's peace, justice & hope,

Pastor Jon

(P.S. The reason the Advent wreath has two candles lit is that this is a photo from last year. I forgot my phone/camera at home this morning so improvising once again!)

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Sarah Young in her devotion for Monday (November 23) in Jesus Calling uses one of my favorite Bible verses, Romans 8:38-39.

Romans 8:38-39:

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

In this Thanksgiving week that is different from many such weeks I have known, giving thanks to God for the gift of his son Jesus is at the top of the list along with giving thanks for almost 50 years of marriage to Ed, two wonderful daughters and their families, and friends both old and new.

I need constant reminders of God's love. It is too easy for me to try and "do it myself" and forget that I have God on my side. But God provides wonderful reminders throughout the day, starting with Jammies with Jesus and ending with the possibility of a beautiful sunset. Bible Study on Tuesdays and Wednesdays (join us for our 4 week Tuesday Advent Study described in the newsletter below) and enjoying God's creation throughout the day reminds me that God is in charge. Watching the ducks who seem to have made our cove their home for the winter, laughing at the squirrels, who try to outwit Ed and get food from the "squirrel-proof" bird feeder, and marveling at the night sky with Orion in it provide an amazing and varied picture of God's creation.

Thank you God for your creation and your love for us. May each of you find many reminders that God's love is always with you as you go through this week.

THANKSGIVING BLESSINGS

Blessings this Thanksgiving as you find ways to celebrate safely with people you love - whether that's virtually, outdoors, etc. Last week LCM put out an electronic newsletter for October and November to keep people up to date. It includes a nice tribute to Rev. Gene Copenhaver by LCM alum, Dan Shonka.

PARISH NEWS & UPDATES

PLEDGE, TIME, AND TALENT

We are using an online Pledge, Time and Talent form electronically this year for your convenience and safety in this time of the COVID-19 pandemic. But, don't worry, if you would like to have a paper copy, we can provide one. Please email Marty High (marty@martyhigh.com) or Abi (unilusecretary@gmail.com) for a paper form.

To access the online form click on this link. You may use the link as many times as you like. For example, you can make a pledge for a family and a separate submission for Time and Talent pledge for an individual (child or adult). Every individual in the family can submit a time and talent form without the pledge form. Everyone in the family can participate in our Church.

STRATEGIC GIVING FOR RETIREES

You may be wondering if you can still do a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) for 2020 even though RMDs are waived. The answer is yes! QCDs from IRAs are still available in 2020 and still offer tax benefits. And, you can support University Lutheran!

QCDs allow IRA owners who are age 70 ½ or older to directly transfer up to $100,000 annually from an IRA to a charity, tax-free. If you are married, you and your spouse may both transfer $100,000 for a total of $200,000. QCDs are also available to IRA beneficiaries over age 70 ½ but are not available from company plans or active SEP or SIMPLE IRAs. The QCD is paid directly from the IRA to University Lutheran.

After tax reform arrived in 2018, QCDs became more valuable than ever. Many taxpayers now take the standard deduction that eliminates the tax deduction for charitable gifts. QCDs add to the standard deduction by allowing the donations made from the IRA to be excluded from income. With a QCD, you get a tax break for your charitable contribution even if you are using the standard deduction.

If you would like to make a QCD contribution to University Lutheran, feel free to contact the Stewardship Committee (marty@martyhigh.com) for more information.

- Pastors will use telecare or other methods for the duration of this public health emergency.

UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

University Lutheran is a family of faith, called by the Holy Spirit to be one ministry serving both our community and university.

The Spirit calls us to make known, by word and deed, the story of God's love in Jesus. Our worship together empowers us to grow as disciples as we receive, celebrate, and share God's gifts with all of God's creation and created ones.
